4. Saharanpur Rs. 2.00 per 40 Kgs.

Provided that the Board may, with the concurrence of the Commission, modify the schedule of outstation delivery centres in respect of any delivery of hedge contract in potatoes before commencement of trading in the same.

299. The Bye-laws regarding delivery orders and demand notices shall also apply to the delivery orders issued for delivery at the out station Centres prescribed under the Bye-laws.

300. If the goods are delivered at out station Centres the sellers shall pay to the buyer the expenses mentioned in Bye-law above.

301. (a) (i) If the seller had issued the delivery order, but had failed to give the delivery of the goods for whatever reason, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kgs.) to the buyer.

(ii) If the seller had issued the delivery order and had tendered the goods against it, but the goods were rejected in survey, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kgs (Rs. 10/- per 100 kgs.) to the buyer.

(iii) If the seller, holding an outstanding sales position during the delivery period, had not issued the delivery order, but had agreed or was prevailed upon by the Chamber to give the delivery of the goods to a buyer (who had issued or not issued the demand notice), but had failed to give the delivery of the goods, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Re. 1/- per 40 kgs. (Rs. 2.50 per 100 kgs.) to the buyer.

(b) If the seller or his agent does not give the delivery of the goods as indicated in (a) above, then the buyer or his agent shall apply in writing within 24 hours to the office of the Chamber regarding the same. On receipt of such application, an officer of the Chamber accompanied by the buyer or his representative shall go and enquire whether the goods against the delivery order in question or the oral commitment as indicated in clause (a) (iii), above are lying with the seller or his agent. At the time of such enquiry, the seller or his representative or his agent, who may be present, shall have to point out the goods. Previous intimation in such enquiry shall be given to the seller or his agent. The officer shall go for such inquiry between 11 A.M. and 5 P.M. If the officer is satisfied that the seller has not sufficient goods to tender against the delivery order in question or the oral commitment as indicated in clause (a) (iii) above, he will give a certificate to the buyer for such insufficient goods, and the seller shall pay the difference between the rate of the delivery order and the due date rate. This is in addition to the penalty required to be paid by the seller to the buyer as indicated in clause (a) above. In case the difference between the rate of the delivery order and the due date rate is in favour of the seller, the seller is not entitled to ask for the same".

302. In case of demand of goods, the goods at outstations shall be tendable. If the seller delivers goods, it shall be delivered of Muzaffarnagar proper.

303. On the due date for Hedge contract, the due date rate shall be fixed by the Board on the basis of spot rate at Muzaffarnagar for basic variety, taking into consideration the spot prices prevailing at the delivery centres and transport charges thereon mentioned in Bye-law 298 and after taking into account other relevant circumstances which they may, in their discretion deem fit. However, in case, the maximum and/or minimum rate or rates are fixed and such rate or rates are operative on due date, then the due date rate shall not be higher than the maximum rate and/or lower than the minimum rates. The due date rate shall also be subject to the conditions, if any, applicable to the contract under bye-law 217A.

304. No member shall enter into fresh contracts except for the purpose of squaring up outstanding open position, after the last date of issue of delivery order and demand notice.

305. In case, the weight of goods delivered is less or more, the difference shall be payable at the closing rate of that date.

306. (a) (i) If the buyer had issued the demand notice, but had failed to take the delivery of the goods for whatever reason, then the buyer shall pay penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kgs. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kgs.) to the seller.

(ii) If the buyer had issued the demand notice and the goods tendered against it by the seller were approved in Survey, but the buyer had not taken or refused to take the delivery of the goods, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kgs. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kgs.) to the seller.

(iii) If the buyer, holding an outstanding purchase position during the delivery period, had not issued demand notice, but had agreed or was prevailed upon by the Chamber to take delivery of the goods from a seller (who had issued or not issued the delivery order), but had failed to take the delivery of the goods, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Re. 1/- per 40 kg. Rs. 2.50 per 100 kg. to the seller.

(b) If the buyer does not take the delivery of the goods against the demand notice in question or the oral commitment as indicated in (a) (iii) above, then the seller shall make an application on the next day thereafter in writing to the Chamber with the details of the goods etc. On receipt of such application from the seller, the Chamber shall immediately notify to the buyer of the same and in the absence of a satisfactory reply within 24 hours thereof of the Chamber shall intimate to the seller that he (seller) would be entitled to sell the goods in the open market on account of and at the risk of the buyer. Such sale by the seller shall be done in the presence of an officer of the Chamber. In selling the goods on account of and at the risk of the buyer if the seller makes any profit, the buyer shall not be entitled to receive the same from the seller. This is in addition to the penalty that the buyer is required to pay to the seller as indicated in clause (a) above. But if there be any loss to the seller, he shall be entitled to cover the same from the buyer as also the expenses incurred for the sale, in addition to the aforesaid penalty.
